10th Anniversary of Bluerider ART

Bluerider ART, established in Taipei, Taiwan in 2013, draws its name from the art movement “Der Blaue Reiter” initiated by avant-garde artist Wassily Kandinsky. The group focuses on fostering artists’ self-expression in various art forms and shares a strong belief in the spirituality of art. Over the past decade, Bluerider ART has collaborated with more than 80 outstanding artists from Europe and America. In September 2013, Bluerider ART opened two spaces in Taipei.

In May 2021, it expanded its presence to Shanghai. Now, in September 2023, Bluerider ART is excited to open its newest space in London, Mayfair, marking a return to the European continent where the spirit of the Blaue Reiter originated. The organisation remains dedicated to preserving the spiritual essence of Kandinsky's Western art and the indomitable spirit of Lu Xun's "Wild Grass" in the East.

Bluerider ART seeks to create a platform for East-West exchange through its foundations in Taipei, Shanghai, and London. It offers high-quality professional collection services, explores the universal language that transcends time and space in art, and is committed to enriching the human spirit through art.
